

Contact Seminar
Quality professionals in VET,
Professionalization of teachers in relation to Quality assurance
2-5 November 2011
Groningen, the Netherlands

8 September 2011,

We are pleased to invite you to attend our Contact Seminar to meet, learn about each other's practices, share ideas and work together to develop projects ideas within the Lifelong Learning program. This contact seminar is organized by the Dutch National Agency for LLP - Leonardo da Vinci in cooperation with the Noorderpoort VET College.

A contact seminar is a networking event organized by National Agencies. It aims at bringing together people from organizations which share common interests and would like to develop European cooperation projects / partnerships in the field of vocational education and training.

Theme & background

Teacher quality is the backbone of the quality of education. Professionalization of teachers and trainers is of key importance for VET. This includes professional and didactical development of teachers. Also it involves including them in Quality Assurance (QA) practices to continually improve practices and aim for excellent education. Professionalization of teachers is a joint responsibility for different levels in VET including HRM, QA, management and the teachers themselves. The importance of these topics is also acknowledged at European level, teacher training is one of the indicators in the European Quality Assurance Reference Framework (EQAVET) and Europe 2020.

This contact seminar focuses on the topic of quality assurance in relation to teacher training with a specific focus on:

- Ownership of QA, involvement of teachers in QA;
- Teachers & social media;
- Teachers aiming at student excellence;
- Professional development;
- VETPRO - Professionalization of teachers & HR policy.

The focus in this seminar will be on Leonardo da Vinci VETPRO mobility & Transfer of Innovation projects.

Why participate?

We offer participants the opportunity to:

- Exchange information and experiences;
- learn more about teacher training in relation with QA in the EU;
